"Lord of the Dance"

*interpretive dance is not a valid form of entry.

Spaceships! Aliens! Galaxies to explore! (and rules to follow...)

Draw or paint your favorite outer space character from a book or movie, or create your own.

Entries will be judged on creativity, style, and originality.

Who can enter? The Fan Art Contest is open to everyone - Children (0 – 8), Tweens (9 – 12), Teens (13 – 17), and Adults (18 +). Employees of the Anderson County Library System, and Electric City ComiCon volunteers, vendors, presenters, or their guests will not be eligible to receive prizes.

What can be entered? Any original drawing, painting or digital artwork of your own, no bigger than 18" x 18", and submitted with a contest form. Submit in a folder or similar protective cover; no hard covers or frames. Please keep entries appropriate for families. The library reserves the right to disqualify and not display inappropriate entries. There is a limit of 2 entries per contestant.

When to enter? Drop off your artwork at any Library location, including the Bookmobile, during regular library hours between May 29th and July 29th. Be sure that your submission has the Contest Entry Form with it.

What will happen to my artwork? Artwork will be displayed at the Main Anderson County Library (300 N. McDuffie St.) during the Con. Any works may be displayed at any Library location or on the library web and social media sites for a length of time afterwards.

Can I get my artwork back after the contest? Yes! Pick up your artwork at the end of the Con or at the Main Reference desk. All artwork must be picked up by Friday, August 11th. Winning artworks may be displayed for a period of time.

Prizes: 1st place, 2nd place, 3rd place, and 1 fan favorite will be chosen in each age group. Winners will be announced at the ComiCon on Saturday, August 5th 2017 at 4:45 and will receive a gift bag from the Library as well as the chance to register for a free art class at the Anderson Arts Center with artist Nick Billingsley. The winning artwork will also be displayed at the Arts Center from August 17-31. The decision of the winners is final. You do not need to be present to win.
