

Story Lines Author Fair

The Anderson County Library System will be hosting the Story Lines Author Fair on Saturday, December 1, 2018 from 1-4 pm at the Anderson Main Library. The Fair will feature authors from across the publishing spectrum giving community members the opportunity to meet authors, purchase books, and learn from the writing and publishing experiences of the attending authors.

Applications for the Story Lines Author Fair must be filled out and submitted either online at www.andersonlibrary.org, emailed to sleady@andersonlibrary.org, or received by mail by October 1, 2018. Authors selected to participate will be notified no later than October 15, 2018.

Mailed applications may be sent to:

Story Lines Author Fair
c/o Sara Leady
Anderson County Library
300 N. McDuffie St.
Anderson, SC 29621

For questions regarding the fair and the application contact Sara Leady at sleady@andersonlibrary.org or 864-260-4500 ext. 121

Guidelines:

1. Authors from the upstate South Carolina area will be given priority consideration but are not guaranteed attendance. Authors from surrounding areas are encouraged to apply.
2. Authors must provide their own sales materials, point-of-sale equipment, and other promotional materials. If the author chooses to accept electronic payments, the unit must operate wirelessly and the set up and configuration of the unit is the author's responsibility. Wall outlets are not guaranteed. Library will provide access to a secure Wi-Fi network.
3. Authors must be published after December 2013.
4. Materials must fall in line with the Anderson County Library System's Mission Statement in regards to content and accessibility of materials.
5. The Anderson County Library will provide each author with a table and two chairs. All display materials should fit within these constraints. Banners or posters are not guaranteed to be accommodated (depending on the space and materials). Wall/ceiling hangings cannot be accommodated.
6. Authors may only sell materials directly related to their published works (e.g., fan art materials). Comic writers who are both published as comic writers and comic artists may sell art related to their publications.
7. The library reserves the right to accept or refuse any application at its discretion.

Story Lines Author Fair Application

Name (legal name and published name, if different):

Address:

Telephone:

Email:

Website and social media:

Most recent publication title:

Publisher of most recent title:

Publication date of most recent title:

Type: Fiction Non-Fiction

Genre:

Target audience:

Toddler or Younger

Juvenile

Middle Grade/Twee

Young Adult

Adult

List of other published titles:

Would you be interested in participating in a panel discussion with other attendees?

If yes, please list topics you would be interested in discussing (e.g., the writing process, how to get published (both the traditional way or newer digital ways), how to get started, etc.)

By signing below, I understand that if selected to participate in the Story Lines Author Fair, I am responsible for my own exhibit, including all point-of-sale equipment, products, signs, and other items I wish to use. The library will supply one table with two chairs, access to a secured Wi-Fi network, but no other assistance.

I hereby certify that all information on this application is true to the best of my knowledge.

Signature: Date: