Complete 10 out of the 12 themes to finish
the challenge. Good luck!

Connecting Cultures

Read a book about a person from a different culture than your own.

Addiction

Explore a book about the struggles, triumphs, and humanity behind addiction. We recommend our March Books & Community read, Dopesick by Beth Macy.

Delicious Reads

Cookbook? A pinch of food culture? A foodie mystery? Savor a book that tempts your taste buds!

Armchair Travels

Embark on a reading journey to another country without leaving your seat.

Color Our World

- ☐ Bring a splash of color to your life with a book about art or an artist.

Quick Reads

- ☐ Zip through a book that has fewer than 200 pages, a book of poetry, or a graphic novel.

Branching Out

- ☐ Go outside your comfort zone and explore an unfamiliar genre.

Strength in Differences

- ☐ Celebrate beauty in diversity, whether it's through characters, themes, or perspectives.

Horribly Entertaining

- ☐ Investigate a mystery, true crime, or horror book.

Indigenous Voices

- ☐ Read a book by an Indigenous author from North America or another part of the world.

Action!

- ☐ Tune in to a book that inspired a film or television series.

Home Grown

- ☐ Celebrate South Carolina! Read a book by a South Carolina author, or a book set in or about our beautiful state.

As you complete each theme, write the title of your book in the white box. Optional fun: head to your library to have your bookmark punched and pick up a bit of library swag. It's our way of saying 'Woo-hoo! Read on!'

Snap a picture of your completed bookmark (10 books total) and email it to adultprograms@andersonlibrary.org, or turn your bookmark in at your local branch in exchange for your completion prize and entry to our grand prize drawing.

Finish all 12 for a bonus entry!
