Juvenile Library Cards:

For children under 18, a parent or legal guardian is required to choose the type of card the juvenile may have and must show their picture ID and provide a written signature. The parent or legal guardian takes responsibility for all items checked out on the card and all fines or fees accrued. All card types can check out digital items from library platforms such as Libby or Hoopla. Parents take full responsibility for any digital items checked out by juveniles. Parental oversight is encouraged for all reading levels.

ACLS Internet Use Agreement

You must have your own library card in order to use the internet. You may not use someone else's card, even with their permission. You may register for a free library card with a picture ID. Cards that have overdue items or have accrued $10 or more in library fees will be blocked from internet use.

1. You must comply with the library's Patron Code of Conduct and the requests of library staff.
2. In addition to the above terms, you violate this Internet and Computer Use Policy if you do any of the following:
  - View, send, or print inappropriate or obscene (as defined by SC Code 16-15-305) websites, images, messages, or files.
  - Violate copyright laws or software licensing agreements.
  - Violate state, federal, or local laws or regulations.
  - Download or install software or programs, or any pornographic content, on Internet or other Library computers.
  - Damage, alter, or tamper with any computer equipment, software, or web filtering services, including time management or printing systems. Ask a staff member if you believe a website has been blocked in error.

Failure to comply with this agreement may result in suspension or revocation of Internet and wireless privileges. I hereby agree to comply with all policies.

The Library reserves the right to monitor all Internet users at any time. This agreement is binding for all devices using our wireless Internet connection.
